Spartan City Kids Get Playground

A playground for Spartan City pre-school children, located 50 yards to the left of the Spartan Stadium main gate, will open Monday, announced Harry Brakebill, assistant comptroller, yesterday.

Playground equipment will be installed this week and the project turned over to Spartan City mothers Monday, according to Mr. Brakebill.

The playground will be a cooperative venture with the mothers volunteering time. The hours will be from 10-12 p.m. and 2-4 p.m. weekdays. Saturdays the grounds will be open from 10-12 p.m.

Equipment to be installed will include two sand boxes, two swings, one slide and one table with chairs. A jungle gym will be installed later.

The playground plan was formulated back in September, but equipment shortages and legal technicalities proved to be a drawback.

The following women have worked on the plans: Mrs. Edwin E. Eagles, Mrs. Richard B. Fillmore, Mrs. Joseph M. Stein, Mrs. William C. Schammel, Mrs. Kenneth E. Wilkens, Mrs. Jack Chaplin, Mrs. William C. Brazil, Mrs. Don R. Vowles, Mrs. John E. DeFigh, Mrs. Milton J. Nikkel, and Mrs. Robert C. McCarty.

COMMITTEE OKAYS SJS SC FACILITIES

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17. (UP)—A State committee, voicing a new theory for California education, today recommended four new four-year state colleges and junior colleges in six counties.

The committee said facilities at San Jose State college and private universities on the peninsula are adequate and would not necessitate expansion. Similarly, Humboldt State college is capable of providing for the northwest area's educational needs, the State committee stated.

The committee recommended that the University of California limit its two largest campuses to 20,000 students each.

Its program eventually would have UC and UCLA specialize in graduate students and professional courses. Most students would take undergraduate work at a state college or junior college. The State would give scholarships each year to 2000 undergraduates and 500 graduates.

New colleges are needed immediately in Riverside, Los Angeles, Sacramento, and the Long Beach-Compton-Orange county districts, the committee said. It also recommended an expansion of the State Agricultural campus at Davis.

Expansion of Fresno State college to 5000 students, San Diego State to 5000, California Polytechnic to 2700 and Santa Barbara college to 3500 were recommended.

Faculty Tours Daily Office

Approximately one-half of the faculty visited the Spartan Daily office during Open House yesterday.

Faculty members saw the editorial and advertising staffs making up today's Spartan Daily in room B93. They were shown the Daily darkroom and the Lyeurgus and La Torre offices. Most of the faculty were interested in the United Press teletype machine.

The Open House was one of several sponsored by the Social committee, of which Dr. Margaret Letzter is chairman. Refreshments were served.

Free Movie Set For 'Lil Theater

The well-known American film, "The Informer," with Victor McLaglen, will be shown free of charge at 3:30 this afternoon and 8 o'clock this evening in the college Little Theater, reports the Speech office.

John Ford's production is considered by most critics to be the best American film to date in sheer dramatic characterization.

FASHION BUYER TO ADDRESS AWS

Miss Marjorie Cristy, buyer for Hart's fashion clothing department, will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of AWS today at 4:30 in room 24.

Miss Cristy will be accompanied by a model who will display the latest fashion in college apparel.

ERA OF 1875 CAUGHT IN 'UP POWELL'

By JACK SILVEY

A substantial crowd of second-nighters caught the spirit of old San Francisco in the repeat showing of "Up Powell," in the Morris Daily auditorium last night.

Attractive ushers in early San Francisco costumes, unique program folders cut to represent the famed San Francisco cable cars, and an actual stage reproduction of one of the quaint little cars, proved effective in setting the atmosphere for the gay musical.

The Fishermen's Wharf scenes, featured throughout the production, were especially well received by the audience. Students playing the parts of Italian fishermen in old San Francisco succeeded in capturing the characteristic comedy and spontaneity of Italian-English accents.

The gay, colorful wedding scene culminating a romance between a poor fishing lad and the daughter of a wealthy San Francisco business man, won hearty audience approval.

Unlike past Revelries shows, consisting mainly of variety numbers, this year's production follows the pattern of light operetta, complete with theme and plot.

Remaining performances of "Up Powell" will be presented tonight, tomorrow night and Friday night. Tickets are available at the college business office.

School Bonds Pass!

The $9,000,000 school bond issue passed yesterday with flying colors. At 10:30 last night, with one voting district unheard from, the count was 14,155 for and 3,946 against. Including all possible negative votes from the remaining area, the issue will still have passed by a margin of four to one.

Foresters Set Short Meeting

Forestry club members planning to attend tonight's meeting at the home of Allen W. Jacobs, 1196 Singletary avenue, should sign the list on the organizations' bulletin board in the Natural Science building immediately.

The meeting, scheduled for 7:30, will be a short one, declares Mr. Jacobs. Refreshments and entertainment will highlight the session. Mr. Jacobs and his wife must know, as soon as possible, how many members will attend in order to complete arrangements for the affair.

COUNCIL MEMBERS TO AIR PROM PLANS

Two Junior Council members will discuss the scheduled Junior Prom over radio station KSJO today at noon, reports Tom Wall, president.

Inter-Frat Dance Has Big Attendance

Over 400 fraternity men and their dates attended the interfraternity dance Friday evening in the Palace Hotel Gold Room, according to Chairman Bob Crone-miller.

IT SHOULDN'T HAPPEN HERE!

(AN EDITORIAL)

Last week the Stanford Daily carried the headline SCANT 22 PER CENT OF STUDENTS VOTE. Out of a student body of nearly 9000, only 1800 went to the polls to elect eleven officers.

Such a showing indicates a sad case of indolence.

Here on Washington Square, the symptoms of a case of acute indolence already have been noted as slightly less than two per cent of the student body turned out for nominations Friday.

It is the right and duty of every student to exert his privilege of franchise. Unless every Spartan casts his vote the very foundation of our democratic form of government is in jeopardy.

When the minority elects officers to govern the whole (as was the case at Stanford), we are moving toward a system antagonistic to the ideals of our American heritage.

The polls are open! Every vote counts! Let's go all-out and set an election record of participation that will long stand as a goal for others to shoot at.

Stanford's poor showing shouldn't happen here. It's up to you!

Stanford Wrestlers Downed By Spartans Boxers To Invade Pacific Northwest

By BARNEY BARNETT

The varsity and JV wrestling teams scored a two-way victory over Stanford University last night in a meet held in the Men's Gymnasium. The varsity won 30-8 while the JV swept their contests, 15-0.

In two excellent exhibition matches Spartan Varsity Captain Fred Albright pinned Mickey Mendoza of the Olympic Club and Doctor Northrop of the Olympic Club came from behind to pin Ray Mieser of Santa Clara in the second period.

San Jose's next opponents will be SF State. The matches will be held in San Francisco on Feb. 25.

Faculty Gets New Member

A new instructor, Dr. Gladys H. Waldron, has been added to the Social Science faculty, according to Dr. William Poytress, department head. She is replacing Dr. Bernice B. Tompkins, who because of illness will not return this quarter.

Dr. Waldron obtained her A.B. degree at Adelphi college in Long Island, her M.A. at Rochester university, and her Ph.D. at the University of California.

She was a teaching fellow at Cornell university for two years, and at the University of California for one year. She also has taught at San Francisco State during summer sessions.

San Jose State's campus will be left unprotected tonight when Coach Dee Portal and eight varsity boxers take off on an airborne invasion of Washington and Idaho.

Tomorrow night the Spartan boxers will meet the consistently strong Idaho Vandals, and on Saturday night they will square off with the Gonzaga mittmen at Spokane.

Wayne Fontes, Sparta's 155 lb. PCI champion, will be taking the acid test when he meets Idaho's Herb Carlson, 1947-National Intercollegiate champion. The Gonzaga ringmen are one of the strongest squads on the Pacific coast, having defeated the Idaho team in a recent dual meet.

Among the boxers making the trip are Rudy Aguirre, Kenny Cayocca, Charlie Townsend, Ray Davilla, and Pete Franusich. Accompanying the squad will be Manager Bill O'Bayley, the Ray Arcel of Washington Square.

While the main team heads north, Assistant Coach Julio Mendez will take some eight boys to Modesto for a dual meet with the junior college boxers. Some of San Jose's better reserve boxers will make the southern trip. Scheduled to compete this evening are: Happy Hirata, Ted Rattliff, Ed Martin, Gordon Voss, Ed Martinez, Joe DeSoto, Don McDowell, Jim Nutt, Don DeMello, Glen Graff, and Raul Diez.

A Rose By Any Other Name . . .

At Berkeley's University of California they call it Gooberhanging; it's a fine old tradition and it doesn't refer to plastering the walls with peanuts.

San Jose State college, somewhat less inventive, refers to it, rather crudely, as necking on the lawns. This is downright silly. Necking is vulgar.

Gooberhanging, on the other hand, suggests a certain expansive enthusiasm, a zest for life and an unshakeable faith in the birds and bees and things.

Gooberhangers, who "squiggle in the grass" as they phrase it at Cal, usually afford infinite amusement to fellow students; that they afford a liberal education to others of a more academic turn of mind is undeniable.

On the whole, it's a fine thing. In the words of a local downtown editorial writer:

"We think this is good."

SOCIAL SCENES

New ROTC Organization

A new organization is being formed on campus by ROTC students, according to Lt. Col. James K. Watts, advisor. New members have appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and decide upon a name.

The group has met several times. German Army films may be shown at the next meeting.

Phi Upsilon Pi . . .

Installed new officers recently at the home of Jim Hall, member.

Vernon Akamiam was installed as grand analyst; Richard Perrine, master analyst; Tom Mercer, secretary; Ross Fuller, treasurer; and George Kiser, sergeant-at-arms.

Silver Saber . . .

Captured German movies were featured at a recent Silver Saber Society smoker held at Alum Rock lodge. The films, taken by German airmen while in combat, showed the destruction of British and American aircraft during the raids over Germany.

This was the first smoker to be held by the newly-organized society of advanced ROTC members, and according to Jack Fowler, president, the affair was a big success.

"It is hoped," Fowler said, "that the Military Ball, which will be held in the spring, will be an even bigger success. If present indications are valid, this Ball will be THE event of the year."

Allenian . . .

New officers of Allenian society were installed at last Wednesday's meeting at the home of Dorothy Beall in Los Gatos.

New president Bernice Hansen accepted the gavel from Jacqueline Mitchell, retiring president. Her corps of officers is as follows:

College Trailer Camp Will Be Fenced In

Residents at the college's Seventh and Humboldt Sts. trailer camp have reversed the lyrics of a recently popular song—they're being fenced in, and they asked for it.

Asst. College Comptroller Harry Brakebill disclosed Friday that a five-foot fence will be thrown up around the Sixth and Seventh Sts. sides. A three-foot picket fence will go along the Humboldt St. side.

Construction should begin within a week or 10 days, Brakebill believes. Cost of the fencing material is approximately $325.

Elizabeth Greulich, vice-president; Patsy Cadwallader, recording secretary; Peggy Carter, corresponding secretary; Bea Hohman, reporter; Winifred Helm, historian; Beverly Shobe, inter-society; Marilyn Zeller, AWS representative; Joan Flint, sergeant-at-arms; Barbara Albaugh, chairman of membership files; Silvia Swanson, jeweler.

Pledges of the organization also elected officers. They are Dorothy Beall, president; Joyce Call, vice president and Jacqueline Van Arsdale and Peggy Etherton, secretaries.

Prof Speaks . . .

Dwight Bentel, head of the Journalism department, gave two speeches last week for the O'Connor Hospital campaign. Monday night, he will speak at the University of Santa Clara.

Mr. Bentel spoke before the 20-30 club Tuesday. He appeared before the Advertising club Thursday.

The campaign is for a new $3,000,000 hospital to replace the present outgrown, outworn hospital, said Mr. Bentel.

Library Class . . .

The class in Library Organization and Administration recently visited the Pacific Press in Mountain View to inspect the plant and learn the process by which books are printed.

Spartan Shop And Fountain Books Open For Inspection States Board Chairman In Answer To Thrust And Parry

By BOB HEISEY and AL CALDWELL

"The ledgers of the Spartan Shop and the Spartan Fountain are open to anyone who wants to look at them, and we would be glad to explain them or answer any question a student might have concerning the operation of the Spartan Shop or the Spartan Fountain," Dr. M. D. Wright stated recently when questioned about the organization of the Spartan Shop.

Dr. Wright, chairman of the Spartan Shop board, and E. S. Thompson, college comptroller, were interviewed in an effort to clarify the various misconceptions and questions of students concerning the ownership and operation of the two campus enterprises.

OUTSIDE AUDITORS

"The books of the fountain and bookstore are audited each year, by Wood and Nye, local certified public accountants, Dr. Wright explained, and a copy of their report is available from either William Felse, college graduate manager, or from myself," he said.

Mr. Thompson, when interviewed, stated, "The Spartan Shop, and the Spartan Fountain, as they operate today, are, for all practical purposes, cooperative enterprises. They have only one reason for existence, and that is service to the students. No one, except the students as a whole has ever profited from these operations in any way," Thompson emphasized. "If any excess income does accrue, it is distributed to the student activities by the Spartan Shop board."

The Spartan Shop board is Coop Owners?

Dear Thrust and Parry:

We would very much like to see the Daily print the actual facts and figures on who owns "OUR" Spartan Shop and Coop!!

Just what percentage is privately owned and what percentage by the Student Body? And, if private ownership—partial or complete—is involved—who exactly are the owners? Hmhmhmhm?

made up of seven faculty members appointed by the college president, and four students appointed by the Student Council. Members receive no remuneration whatsoever for their services. The Board meets quarterly, the meetings are announced, and anyone may attend who wishes.

BOARD MEMBERS

Present Board members are: Faculty: Chairman, M. D. Wright; Secretary, E. S. Thompson, W. H. Poytress, R. W. Barry, M. C. Lanyon, C. D. Duncan, and W. H. Myers. Students: Dick Knox, Charlotte Harder, Al Caldwell, and Arman Hanzad.

Article V, Section 2 (g) of the By-Laws of the Spartan Shop Board provides for the disposition of any profits by giving the board the following power:

"After providing for the proper reserves, to authorize the distribution of profits to student activities in any manner deemed most equitable."

Thus in 1944 the board turned over to the student body the entire net proceeds resulting from the year's operation amounting to $1135.61.

VETS ACCOUNTS

The profits resulting from the operations for the school years 1944 through 1946, Thompson explained, were added to the operating capital and used for expansion. Due to the heavy veteran purchases chargeable against the Veterans' Administration, where it requires several months to secure reimbursement, it has been necessary to borrow large sums in order to carry the accounts receivable. In the spring of 1947 the amount that the bookstore had borrowed for this purpose was $70,212.

"Furthermore," Thompson went on, "The expansion of the fountain facilities early in 1947 cost approximately $20,000. A reserve of $16,000, which has been built up for this purpose over several years, turned out to be inadequate to cover the costs at the higher prices."

RESERVES

"It is definitely not the purpose of the board to build up unnecessarily large reserves," Thompson said, "nor is it its purpose to operate for profits even though such profits go directly into student activities. The sole aim is to provide students with services at the least possible cost."

Thompson concluded, "It is hoped that students will continue to consider the Spartan Shop and the Spartan Fountain as their own enterprises and continue to support them with their business."

Grid Relations

Dear Thrust and Parry:

What's the deal? "Spartans Break Grid Relations with USF Eleven." What grid relations? Just where is the University of San Francisco on our 1948 football schedule? And what makes the athletic department think that USF would want a repetition of last year's fiasco?

This seems to be a cheap bid for publicity, striking another school when they're down. Ed McKeever, as a result of HIS disgraceful action, has been erased from membership on the American Football Coaches' Association's radio committee and Joe Kuharich put in his place.

Perhaps, if luck prevails, we might get $\frac{1}{4}$ of an inch on the last page of the Chronicle Sporting Green. ASB 5950

Dear Thrust and Parry:

While considering the vital issue of Universal Military Training, we might do well to glance at the past history of this terribly outmoded and inadequate form of defense. It is a historical fact that every great nation who has ever had universal military training and peacetime conscription has gone down in utter defeat and ruin.

Drawing further upon past history, it is interesting to note that in the Civil War, about 75% of the soldiers engaged were foot soldiers; in World War I, about 40%; in World War II, about 10%.

World War III we can only make a guess as to the percentage, but that guess would indicate that our billions would be far better spent on a small but highly

Native Addresses Club
On Subject Of India

"Although castes have existed in India for hundreds of years, they are slowly but surely being eliminated," declared Mr. Bap Reddy of India, speaking before the Entomology club recently.

"Gandhi's tremendous influence on the people will continue to increase, despite the great leader's death," the lecturer explained. Reddy referred to the slain mahatma as "the greatest human being since Jesus Christ."

The Indian, working toward his Ph.D. degree at the University of California, presented an authentic, vivid and often humorous picture of his native land to the audience, declared Dr. Carl Duncan of the Natural Science department.

Mr. Rex Bartges, a State graduate, also a candidate for a doctor's degree at UC, shared the speaking honors with Reddy.

"Bartges gave us an informative, well-rounded speech on plant diseases as transmitted by insects," said Dr. Duncan in reviewing the evening's program.

Technical motion pictures, first shown at Entomology club meetings two weeks ago, will become a "regular or near-regular feature of the sessions," the entomology professor explained.

The club will meet on Wednesdays hereafter, he concluded.

Music Award Goes To Phillips

Miss Priscilla Phillips, sophomore Music major, was recently presented the annual recognition award by the National Executive Council of Mu Phi Epsilon, national Music sorority.

The award was presented at the annual guest tea given for members of Mu Phi Epsilon by the San Francisco Alumnae chapter at the residence of Countess Dandini, patroness.

Also on the afternoon program was the performance of the Bach D Minor Concerto for Two Violins by Alice Brill and Jane Pope, senior violin majors from the San Jose Phi Mu chapter. Accompanist was Carolyn Bull.

Bigger And Better 'Lyke', Says Staff

The editorial staff of Lycurgus, Marian Ellis, Lee Stronach and Al Campbell, announced Friday that the Winter quarter issue of the campus magazine will go on sale the first week in March.

According to the staff, the magazine will contain more fiction and humor than has been the policy of past issues.

Stories and poems by Jean Grenbeaux, Bill McEnroe, Pat Elkins and David Lesperence will be featured in the issue.

Music Department Has Busy Week

Jane Pope and Alice Brill, senior violinists, participated in a broadcast over radio station KEEN last week. The program was sponsored by the Santa Clara County Music Teachers' Association.

Other activities of students of the Music department last week included a trip by Mr. William Erlendson's a capella choir to Campbell High school Wednesday. Miss Pope and Miss Brill also participated on the program as soloists.

A string quartet from Miss Frances Robinson's Chamber Music class, and pupils from Mr. Erlendson's piano class gave a concert for the Santa Clara County Music Teachers' association Wednesday night in Scofield Hall. The string quartet included Dolores O'Neill and Craig Johnson, violinists, Walter Danlin, violinist, and Virginia Howe, cellist.

Pay Typewriters Added To Library

Two coin-operated typewriters were installed upstairs in the Library yesterday, according to Dean of Men Paul Pitman.

The typewriters will operate for 30 minutes when a dime is deposited in the coin slot. The Dean had hoped for several more machines, but two were all the college could obtain.

"They're very scarce," says Dean Pitman, "but we have two now and I'm sure they will be put to good use. They are in the corridor outside the Education Reference room, where the lighting is good and the machines won't disturb anyone studying."

Senior Game Dance To Have Live Music

Seniors again will have the opportunity to dance to a live band at the post game dance on Friday, Feb. 20, in the Women's gym. Tommy Pratt will provide the music, announces Sal Millan, chairman of the dance.

Feature of the evening will be prizes that have been provided by local merchants of San Jose. In addition several entertainment acts will be presented at intermission time.

Adding to the dancing atmosphere, the gym will be gaily decorated by the committee headed by Ethel Dodge and Dorothy Simson, with original drawings by Mildred Petty. Others on the committee include EllaBea German, Eleanor Freitas, Adele Bertolotti, Bill McFarland, Elwood Pierce, Merideth Hughes, Bobbie Jackson, Donna McCarty and Joyce Woods.

Commenting on the dance, President George Genevro urges women students to attend and help make the evening complete. "Naturally the males will follow," he says.

Grade Your Prof Plan To Spread

TEMPE, Ariz., Feb. 17 (UP).—Arizona State college at Tempe students are demanding the right to grade instructors and the college paper, State Press, announced today an effort is under way to make the movement nationwide.

"The individual professors," State Press said, "would get an excellent evaluation of what they are doing. It would raise the caliber of teaching and promote better relations between students and teachers."

Attendance Is Vital To Junior College Revenue, Says Elder

Excuses Should Be Submitted To Room 110

"Revenue received for the support of San Jose Junior college is based upon the average daily attendance of the students," Dr. Jay C. Elder, dean of general education, said in a recent communique to Spartan Daily.

He went on to point out that every time a student is absent from a class a loss occurs in revenue, since Junior college facilities are provided without cost to the student.

"California school law provides that absence from classes due to illness will not result in a deduction from revenue if the student will bring a note. The note should be signed by a doctor, nurse or parent, verifying his condition of health and the days of absence. Notes should be turned in at the Junior college office, room 110," Dr. Elder commented.

Any Junior college student who has been absent from classes since the first of January on account of illness and who has not filed a statement is requested to attend to this matter as soon as possible.

Personnel Needs Listed With Dean

Social workers, teachers in many fields, secretaries and bookkeepers are needed to fill many positions in the United States and Alaska, according to Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman.

Dean Pitman has received a listing of personnel needs from the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian church. They include jobs in Arizona, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Utah, Tennessee and Iowa in the United States, and in Puerto Rico and Alaska.

Single men and women receive room, board, heat, light and transportation to their jobs, plus $1100 yearly, according to the dean. Married persons receive $1680 and a furnished house in addition to the above allowances.

Single and married persons also may participate in a pension plan. Those applying need not be Presbyterians, states the Dean. Further information may be obtained in the Dean of Men's office.

EARLY ATTEMPT TO BAN NEGRO PLAYERS REVEALED

WILBERFORCE, O., Feb. 17 (UP).—Major league owners were revealed today to have made a concerted effort in late April, 1945, to kill Branch Rickey's plan to introduce a Negro into organized baseball.

Rickey, president and general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, made the disclosure here last night before a Wilberforce State university football banquet.

The major league owners, at a joint meeting in Cleveland, unanimously adopted a statement to the effect that introduction of Negro players into the sport would jeopardize organized baseball's entire investment, Rickey said. The statement was prepared, he added, by one of baseball's top men.

Rickey refused to identify the author of the statement.

Negro Jackie Robinson, now the Dodgers' first baseman, who was the specific topic of Rickey's speech, was the fuse of another bomb the "Dodgers' president dropped in the midst of the Negro school's celebration.

This was to the effect that Robinson had been the innocent pawn in an effort by Communists to secure the support of Negroes in this country.

"In a single day in 1944," Rickey said, "I received 30 telegrams, all of which proved after thorough investigation to be from either Communist-dominated groups or from individuals associated with them to pressure me to employ a Negro baseball player.

"Even now the Communists are trying to steal the credit for Negro players being in organized baseball."

RADIO SALUTE FOR SAN JOSE

Plans for a radio salute to San Jose State college by Chesterfield's program were announced late Friday in a telegram to Lowell Pratt, director of public relations.

On March 31, first day of classes next quarter, the salute is to be broadcast over the Mutual Don Lee network, according to the wire. Mr. Pratt has confirmed that on that date no conflicts with any school activity will take place. The wire was signed by Peter Potter KHJ.

BALKY MULE SITS ON FIRE

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 17 (UP).—Berton Ramone, 76-year-old Indian, did what many mule skinner have wanted to do—build a fire under a balky mule—and now Ramone is in jail for 30 days.

Ramone said he lighted the fire under the mule when it sat down to keep it warm, but sheriff Jerry Martin told the court Ramone was trying to make the mule pull a load heavy enough for two mules. "It happened after one of Ramone's mules fell in a cesspool and died," the sheriff said. "The other animal just sat down when he tried to make it pull the load. But even the fire didn't budge the mule, though its legs were badly burned."

Ramone was charged with cruelty to animals.

Sling-Shot Attack On The G-String

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17 (UP).—College student William C. Kiele, Jr., was held today on charges of assaulting a burlesque theater's chorus line with a rubber band.

The Burbank theater's manager said Kiele, 23, in a front row vantage spot, was shooting half-inch metal staples with a sling-shot.

SAN JOSE WAA BASKETBALLERS LOSE TO STANFORD

Results of last week's Stanford basketball playday found San Jose's WAA girls winning one game and dropping two.

The Blue Hornets came through with a 21-15 victory over the Stanford C team. High scorers were Jacques Foster and Margarette Theiler with eight points each. Captain of the winning team is Jean Martin.

The "I" Points dropped their game to the B team of Stanford with a score of 18-13. Beverly Warnke was high point scorer for the team with eight points to her credit.

Also losing their game was Mrs. Wallace's Naughty Girls with a score of 15-7 favoring Stanford's A team.

Hughes' 'Moe Folks,' 'Crusaders' Win

The A.P.O. "Crusaders" tamed the "Wildcats" Wednesday evening by a 28-22 score, while Chuck Hughes' "Modesto Moe Folks," edged out Harold Macks "Ridge-Runners" 27-25, in an Intramural Basketball tournament game held in the Men's gym.

Ted Richmond of the Wildcats was high point man with 13 points, and Wolfe, playing for the "Modesto Moe" team was in with 12 counters.

Second period play found Gordon Hays' "Renegades" victors over the Newman Club JV team 19-13. Oltman of the "Renegades" was high point man with 12 tallies to his credit.

Howard Best's "Re-latives" won over the "Varsity House" 27-22. Jim Shuyler, accounting for 10 digits for the "Re-latives," was chief point-getter.

The Co-ed Recreation committee will sponsor badminton games tonight in the Women's gym from 7 until 9, reports Hal Riddle, chairman.

Large Record Collection At SJSC Enjoyed By Many Music Lovers

"More than forty students come in daily to listen to phonograph records," according to Miss Maude Coleman of the Library department. Miss Coleman points out, however, that there are few students who realize that the Library has books to assist the most inexperienced students in selecting records.

For the inexperienced student, and those who are familiar with only a few selections, Miss Coleman suggests that they see such books as Leopold Stokowski's "Music for Us All," or Sigmund Spaeth's "Music for Fun."

Students who are eager to become serious listeners, according to Miss Coleman, should consult

NAVY OIL SEEKERS FIND THREE JAM JARS FULL; REQUEST MORE MONEY

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Thinking about digging a little hole in the back yard in search of a quart of oil or so? Well, don't do it, mister. You'll spoil the petunia bed for one thing. For another, it'll cost you a heap of tall money; and for yet another, your chances of success are about as slim as sitting down right now and picking the winner, among the three-year-olds, yet unborn, of the 1955 Kentucky Derby.

Take a fine lesson from the Navy.

The boys in Navy blue have been digging like mad in Alaska since 1946 and haven't found enough oil to wet Main street in Farmer City, Ill.

Not only that, the Navy has spent $4,800,000 in Operation Petro up there and is coming back to Congress for more dough. Commodore W. C. Greenman appeared before a House subcommittee yesterday to talk about the matter. He fetched along a lot of technical advisers and three samples of oil. The advisers, slicked up fit to kill, carried brief-cases full of facts and figures and charts. The commodore had the samples in his pocket in little bottles, one a former strawberry jam jar.

Greenman adjusted his eye glasses, got a little pink around the ears and said that wasn't ALL the oil he and his lads had found. But darn near all.

Digging for oil, he said, was a gamble in any man's oil field. You go down six or seven thousand feet. Maybe you run into oil and maybe you don't. It all depends. And doing same in Alaska is twice as tough, particularly in the wilds of the Point Barrow region. After finding oil there, he said, you'd have to worry about getting it back to the United States.

Rep. Carl Vinson of Georgia drawled that wouldn't it be smarter to find the oil first and worry about transporting it after? Commodore Greenman said that sure was a fact. But he added that it costs a lot of money to go running around the icy acres of Alaska looking for a seepage of oil. It takes geologists, people with seismographs for listening to the heartbeat of the earth, drillers and a lot of other help.

PRATT HALL HOLDS 'OPEN HOUSE' SUN.

Pratt Hall, San Jose State college dormitory, will hold its annual open house Sunday, Feb. 22, from 2 to 5 p.m., announces Alice Joy Golder, house president. All students, organizations and faculty members are invited to come and inspect the dormitory, she added.

Serving at the tea table will be house mothers Mrs. Belle Moore and Mrs. Pearl Hardisty. Heading the general arrangements for the affair is Doreen Sewell, vice-president.

Pratt Hall is the only dormitory operated by the college. It was opened in the Fall of 1945 under the direction of Dr. P. Victor Peterson, Science department head. At present it houses 86 women. House affairs are conducted by an eight-woman council, elected each quarter.

The dormitory is located at 1195 South First Street.

Reber Explains Plan To Engineers Tonite

"The Reber Plan" will be the subject of a speech to be given by Mr. John Reber at an Engineering Society smoker tomorrow in the Student Union at 8 p.m.

Mr. Reber's plan, which advocates the building of two dams across San Francisco Bay, was described by Dr. Ralph J. Smith, engineering department head, as having "definite possibilities."

The dams, which would create a large fresh water lake in each end of the bay, and therefore improve the atmosphere of the area considerably, would also form the base for super-highways connecting San Francisco with the mainland and make another bridge unnecessary.

Dr. Smith observed that "such a plan offers employment and opportunity for future engineers, and I would urge all engineering majors to attend the smoker."

Stu Inman Maintains Spartan Scoring Lead With 276 Points, Wuesthoff Next

By JOHN GOTHBERG

With only three more games remaining on their schedule, Stu Inman still leads the Spartan cagers in total scoring with 276 points. Bob Wuesthoff trails Inman with 236. Chuck Hughes has made the greatest gain of late in the scoring column. He sank 41 points in the two weekend games and has a total of 206 for the 15 contests in which he has participated. His per game average is better than 13 points.

Bob Hagen is in third place behind Wuesthoff with 231 digits to his credit. Ralph Romero is in fifth spot with 84.

HAL MARKS

Hal Marks has been the highest scorer among the reserves during the past six contests. He chalked up 11 points against the Mustangs in a tough battle here Saturday night. Bob Enzensperger and Junior Morgan have also been hitting the bucket quite regularly.

PACIFIC MEET

The Spartans are preparing for Friday night's cage classic with College of Pacific. Coach Walt McPherson expects anything to happen in this contest. Last year the Tigers broke the spirit of the San Jose hoopsters when they eked out a 46-45 victory.

State's record of 17 wins and seven losses is much more impressive than the nine victories and ten defeats record of the Bengals. Nevertheless, Coach Chris Kjeldsen has some fine material and could easily pull an upset.

Guard Stan McWilliams is the outstanding man for Pacific both offensively and defensively. Bud Proulx, Hank Pfister, and Phil Ortez are terrific players.

SPARTANS FAVORED

Potentially San Jose is the superior team but the Tiger team will be fired up to a high point Friday. It is this rivalry between these schools that makes every contest a thriller.

The local aggregation was able to capture an impressive victory earlier this season over the Stocktoners. Nevertheless, it wasn't until the last five minutes of the game that the Spartans actually began to widen the margin. The Pacific quintet kept within easy reach of the Gold and White men during the greater part of the contest.

FIELD AND GYM

By PAUL VON HAFFTEN

Coach Walt McPherson's casaba squad has been consistent all season. The hoopsters have been hitting the bucket constantly, and it really paid off Saturday night.

Cal Poly, led by their great star, Hank Moroski, battled the Spartans down to the final gun in a close game. The supposed weak sisters of the league have been the only ones to give the Spartans an argument.

TOUGH TILTS

However, the basketballers have two very tough games ahead of them before they can lay claim to the title. Both opponents, the College of Pacific and the San Diego Aztecs will be spoiling for revenge when they invade the local campus.

With the dependable Spartans in great shape, they should win both games. Their opponents, however, will be tough.

The Spartans, led by Chuck Hughes, Bob Hagen, Bob Wuesthoff, Stu Inman and Ralph Romero, should come through. The defensive play of Hal Marks and Bob Enzensperger has been outstanding.

HORSEHIDERS

Coach Walt Williams is working hard to get his squad into shape and has pared the baseball nine down to 25 men. Bob Pifferini was in there pitching pretty fair ball during practice. George Wehner also looked good.

The 1948 tennis schedule has come out. Coach Ted Mumby informed us that he would no longer use Backesto tennis courts. The netters are scheduled to meet California, Menlo, and San Mateo as well as San Francisco State and USF. Leading players on the squad are Bob Phelps, Gene Franco, Don McKenzie, Ed Terry, and Dave Parnay, who are the big guns on the squad.

Jim Shouse, local Spartan wrestler who was injured during the middle of last season, expects to get back into shape now that the injury has healed. He is a sophomore advertising major.

BOXERS

Coach Dee Portal's boxers leave for the northland where they will meet Gonzaga and Idaho. The Spartans are seeking revenge over the Idaho Vandals. They meet the strong Gonzaga Bulldogs who upset the Vandals recently. We wish them good luck.

We're sorry to see that Buddy Leitch, San Jose News sports-writer is ill with virus pneumonia.

SWIMMERS

Captain Daly and Ed. Rudloff have shown the most improvement on Charley Walker's swim squad. Al Gras is also doing superbly. He is one of the best divers on the peninsula. That goes for California, Stanford, and St. Mary's as well.

There will be no swim meet this week. The St. Mary's dual meet was called off until a later date. The Spartans tangle with California the last of the month.

Spartan Netmen Face Busy Season; Coach Ted Mumby Schedules 16 Matches

By DAVE LEONARD

Coach Ted Mumby's varsity tennis squad will get an extensive season under way when they face the College of Pacific here on March 6. Definitely listed to date are fifteen meets plus two tournaments, and including matches with St. Mary's, U.S.F., S.F. State, and California. The squad is composed largely of last season's veterans. Only Greg Sargeant and Bob Brokop have been lost. Returning are Captain Gene Franco, Don McKenzie, Dave Parnay, and Ed Terry.

Franco is expected to hold down the No. 1 position while McKenzie, Parnay, and Terry will fight for the second spot. Mumby declares, however, that all positions are open still and elimination matches will be held in the near future to determine the future team rankings.

BUM COURT SET-UP

Although there has been a good turnout, the tennis mentor says that play has been handicapped by the poor court set up. Only the five courts at Spartan stadium are available at the present time, permitting but ten or twelve players to compete at any one time.

Frosh Lose Swim Star This Season

Swimming Coach Charlie Walker revealed yesterday that Robert Frank, one of the Freshman swimming team's prospective mainstays dropped out of school. Frank was a free-style distance swimmer. The swimming mentor indicated that Lloyd Kidder will probably take the place of Frank.

"In other respects the frosh swimmers are doing all right," Walker said. "They are still training and should be in good shape by the time the season opens."
